What Educators Tell Us

About the Certificate Program…
“The program has improved my ability to identify gifted learners and differentiate my instruction in order to accommodate their special needs.” —Jacquie S.

About the Conference…
“All of the conference sessions were excellent. The ideas were useful. I really enjoyed it.” —Kristen Q.

About the Faculty…
“Dr. Joyce Van Tassel-Baska has carved a path for the field of gifted education that is deep. It has been an immense honor to study her work and learn from her.”
—Jessica H.

New! Access free webinars and tools designed for educators and parents. Learn more at gifteded.rutgers.edu/free-tools.

CONTACT US
Gifted Education Program
Division of Continuing Studies
Rutgers University–New Brunswick
3 Rutgers Plaza
New Brunswick, NJ 08901
848-932-7565
gifteded.rutgers.edu/info

Offered in Partnership by:
Rutgers Division of Continuing Studies and Rutgers Graduate School of Education
Scholarships
$1000 scholarships are available annually to support educators who wish to enhance their knowledge and skills in working with gifted learners. Certificate participants may apply online beginning September 1. Awards will be announced at the Gifted Education Conference in November.

Conference
Take a deep dive into gifted education best practices, hear the latest research, and find inspiration to energize your work with gifted learners during our November Rutgers Gifted Education Conference.

Every educator works with gifted students. This year’s conference is designed with all P-12 educators in mind: classroom teachers, gifted ed specialists/coordinators, principals and superintendents. Learn how to identify and address these students’ needs, keep current with the field, and network with gifted education teachers and administrators from across the state. Concurrent workshops for experienced and novice educators and administrators will be led by experts drawn from across the country. Registration begins September 1.

Online Certificate Program
This 12-month program, designed for P-12 educators, counselors, and administrators who seek graduate-level professional development in gifted education provides:

- Four courses and a culminating field project that address the Teacher Preparation Standards in Gifted and Talented Education and the Advanced Standards in Gifted Education Teacher Preparation
- Fifteen graduate credits to help you advance on your district salary scale

Gifted Education Courses
Rutgers Gifted Education courses can be taken individually, counted towards the certificate program, or applied towards an advanced degree at Rutgers University. Rutgers also offers various special topics courses relevant to the field of gifted education.

- The Gifted Child
- The Social & Emotional Development of Gifted Children
- Curriculum & Instruction for The Gifted
- Gifted Program Development
- Clinical Placement & Practicum

Scholarships
$1000 scholarships are available annually to support educators who wish to enhance their knowledge and skills in working with gifted learners. Certificate participants may apply online beginning September 1. Awards will be announced at the Gifted Education Conference in November.

For more information about the Rutgers Gifted Education Program, visit gifted.ed.rutgers.edu/info.

Custom & Consulting Services
- Consulting
  Our expert certificate faculty can provide consulting on program design, development, implementation, and evaluation at your site.
- Custom Professional Development
  Custom professional development for educators, administrators, counselors, and resource specialists can be developed and delivered at your site, online, or in hybrid format.